

Classiques Garnier Numérique is appointing Online Bilgi as exclusive sales representative in Turkey

Paris, September 9, 2022

We are pleased to share the news that Classiques Garnier Numérique has signed a sales agreement with Online Bilgi.

“We are very excited to partner with Online Bilgi, a trusted and experienced company that will help us better serve the needs of our customers. With the help of Online Bilgi’s local teams, we can get a better understanding of academic and governmental institutions in Turkey and build long term relationships with libraries and end-users interested in our publications.” Cécile Waroquaux, Sales & Marketing Manager – Electronic Resources, Classiques Garnier Numérique

“We are very excited to partner with such an esteemed publisher. Our team is looking forward to promoting Classique Garnier.” Ilhan Akcal – Sales Director, Online Bilgi

About Classiques Garnier

Classiques Garnier, founded in 1833 and based in Paris, was originally publishing reference editions of French, Greek, and Latin literature. Edited by leading specialists, those collections were highly successful with scholars and students alike. Starting in the 2000s this catalogue was gradually expanded to cover humanities and social sciences: French and foreign literature, language and linguistics, history, arts, music, law, economics and management, social sciences. All our books and journals are published in print and online formats simultaneously. We also offer fulltext databases of literature, dictionaries, grammars, encyclopaedias, and bibliographies. Customers include universities, research centers and public libraries.

About Online Bilgi

Online Bilgi is a reliable solution partner in the field of information services. It offers research databases, standard documents, digital library tools, e-journals, e-books and similar products that best suit the needs of its customers.